

What To Do

Thank you so much for living love in our community this way! Now that you've agreed to adopt this teacher...

Please:

-Pray for her/him at least once a week.

If you have a spouse or kids, don't hesitate to make this a family affair—pray together for your teacher. Pray for wisdom, for God's multiplication of her/his efforts, for patience, for joy, for breakthroughs, for her/his family, for the students; you get the idea. :)

Each time you pray, send a quick note to let them know you did.

-Surprise and delight her/him at least once a month.

Looking for ideas? We've got a bunch for you below. Have fun!

You might:

-Send an quick note of encouragement via email

-Write a prayer for her/him and mail it in a card

-2 or 3 weeks after school starts, find out what supplies are running low in their classroom, and have friends chip in to help restock

-Volunteer as a Reading Buddy in their classroom and read aloud to the students

-Send a $10 gift card

-Ask every 2 weeks for 3 things they'd like you to pray for

-Drop off a couple of breakfast tacos in the morning

-Men, volunteer to help out via the Watch D.O.G.S. program (Google it for info)

-Send a fun song through iTunes as a musical pick-me-up

-Surprise her/him with fresh flowers for their classroom
